“Dr. King believed that everyone has a responsibility and can play a part in helping our nation live up to its full potential. The Arkansas King Commission is dedicated to promoting Dr. King's principles in a way that would help people, especially our youth, to understand how those principles can be applied in everyday situations. Hopefully the 21st century will transform each of us from dreamers to doers. We'll see you at the MLK, Jr. Youth Summit!”
